Rise Up And Remember

Their sacrifice
We are not to forget
Those who paid the price
Of the worse massacre of Jews
To happen yet

But through the darkness
Shall there come light
For we will remember
Those who put up a fight

Through flowers and candles
To commemorate the loss
Of others who had to pay the cost
To regain the Jews rights
On their journey through life
Their experiences are not to be lost

In the hard times,
We may suffer
But may our nation arise
And uncover the truth
That was masked with lies

We must carry their stories with all of our hearts
Because thread by thread, they come apart
To unravel into nothing
Would be a fault on our part

To keep the courage
The strength alive
The stories that have happened
Need to thrive

For our Fathers,
Our Mothers,
Our sisters,
Our brothers,

Our children await
They change they can make

Using peace and kindness

We put aside our fear
To keep their stories in the air

It is to never happen

Ever again
But we must share the bravery
And the stories will remain
